

FILMS ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Sex Slaves - a PBS documentary FRONTLINE presents a unique hidden-camera look at this world of sexual slavery, talking with traffickers and their victims, and exposing the government indifference that allows the abuses to continue virtually unchecked. Sex Slaves also follows the remarkable journey of one man, determined to find his trafficked wife, who carried her photograph in his pocket and posed as a trafficker himself to buy back her freedom.

Human Trafficking - A two part mini-series starring Mira Sorvino and Donald Sutherland. Details the trafficking for sexual purposes of young women from Europe to the United States. Human Trafficking is probably the most watched media production on human trafficking. A gripping presentation that does much to educate the public on the realities of human/sex trafficking. www.lifetimetv.com/images/movies/flash/humantrafficking/guide.pdf Excellent educational website.
